Faith-Fueled & Legacy-Driven

Are You Ready to Step Out of Your Job and Into Purpose?

Use this checklist to assess your spiritual, emotional, financial, and strategic readiness for stepping into your God-given purpose through business.

Spiritual Readiness

- ☐ I regularly sense that God is calling me into something new.
- ☐ I've experienced divine 'nudges' or dreams pointing to entrepreneurship.
- ☐ I've prayed and feel a growing confirmation in my spirit.
- ☐ I feel misaligned or restless in my current career.

Emotional Readiness

- ☐ I'm emotionally prepared to handle uncertainty and change.
- ☐ I no longer feel fulfilled in my current role or environment.
- ☐ I have a strong support system (family, mentors, or community).

Financial Readiness

- ☐ I have reduced debt or developed a financial runway.
- ☐ I have counted the cost and made a plan (Luke 14:28).
- ☐ I've considered ways to earn while I build (bridge income or savings).

Purpose & Strategic Readiness

- ☐ I have a clear sense of the impact I want to make.
- ☐ I'm willing to invest in myself through coaching or mentorship.
- ☐ I've begun mapping out an idea, vision, or framework.

If you checked 10 or more boxes, you probably feel restless. And if you're anything like me, that restlessness won't go away until you take action.

What better time than now to heed the call and step boldly into your God-given purpose?
